

LATEST REPORTS.

[From the Washington Star of this evening.]

The Argo, from Aquia Creek, arrived here this morning at half-past 7 o'clock. Parties who came up on her report that Aquia Creek was evacuated yesterday afternoon. The cars on the Fredericksburg road stopped running in the morning, and the rolling stock of the road was placed upon transports and taken away.

Yesterday evening one of the Federal gun-boats was lying off Aquia Creek, engaged in burning such buildings as would afford shelter to the Confederate guerrillas.

The Argo landed a force of three hundred cavalymen at Boyd's Hole, the terminus of the military telegraph. The cavalry was landed there for the purpose, it was supposed of protecting the line from the depredations of guerrillas.

The Louisville Journal is advised that Gen. John H. Morgan, at the head of five or six thousand cavalry, is at Abington, Va., and contemplated an immediate raid into Kentucky via Round Gap.

Another "crisis" is apprehended in Canada and another ministerial change, the tenth within two years. The public securities of Canada, which five years ago were sixteen per cent. premium are only worth ninety.

Ex-Governor Medary, of Ohio, has returned to his home at Columbus, from Cincinnati, where he had been held under arrest by the military authorities.

The grandjury of New York have found a bill of indictment against Marshal Murray for his course in the Arguelles extradition case.

An address of the Pope to the Archduke Maximilian is published. He recommends to him, in particular, to defend the rights of the church.

Mrs. Douglas and daughter, of Charlestown, Va., have been arrested in Frederick county, Md., charged with blockade-running.

New York city has appropriated a fresh half million dollars to provide additional aid to the families of volunteers.

On Wednesday the steamer Hecla, with $165,890 in specie, sailed from New York for Liverpool.

The Confederates have burned the block houses, warehouses, &c., recently erected by the Federal troops at Fairfax Station.

The Republican Convention in Illinois has declared in favor of Mr. Lincoln.

Gold in New York, yesterday 185.

TO PREVENT SICKNESS,

PURIFY THE BLOOD!

NOTHING is more wholesome at this time of year, than a gentle purgative. It will purify the blood and digestive organs, and enable the system the better to endure the warm season to come. For this purpose we would advise every one in quest of sound health, to try a box of Prof. Wundram's Vegetable Pills or Powders, which have proved so salutary the past two seasons, to all who tried them.

For sale at most Druggists. See advertisement in another column. ap 30-2m
